When Dr. Crissey first came to Washington he was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church, and with others, established a mission, holding its first meeting in a lumber yard near Long Bridge. This mission has since developed into a prosperous church. Later he assisted in building Gurley Memorial Church and Faith Chapel. I have only located one source that can identify the regiment of origin and it targets the 49th NY Infantry. The resource located here: <a href="http://www.alexandria.lib.va.us/lhsc_genealogy_resources/ale x_natl_cem/cem_index.html" identifies the grave at site 408 but all others point to 428 where it was found. The resource linked above identifies the grave site for "Peter Deering". Pronunciation of Deering and Doering can be very similar and I expect an error in spelling. Rosters compiled by New York State Adjutant General Office 1893 and 1905 acknowledge a few alternate spellings as identified above in soldier summary. After looking at the Alexandria National Cemetery grave list onsite as well as cross checking with the United States Department of Veterans Affairs Nationwide Gravesite Locator I was unable to locate any internments at the cemetery under "Deering" and only one "Peter Doering" is interred at the cemetery. Based on the resource and physical check of the site I do believe this is Peter Devering, Doehring, "Deering", or Doering of the 49th NY Vols.

2	RAIBER	FREDERICK	Frederick Raiber	1	US Soldiers' and Airmen's Home National Cemetery	21 Harewood Road, NW	Washington D.C.	District of Columbia	Site 4207	6/23/2012	Age, 44 years. Enlisted at Buffalo, to serve three years, and mustered in as private, Co. B, September 24, 1861; discharged for disability, December 19, 1862, at Washington, D. C ; also borne as Frederick Reiber.	Died January 10, 1863 - Carver General Hospital, Washington DC. Upon inspection, headstone suggests affiliation with Pennsylvania troops. However, The US Department of Veterans Affairs Nationwide Gravesite Locator as well as original U.S. National Cemetery Interment Control Form says affiliation as PVT B 49 NY INF. Both resources confirm soldier passed on Jan. 10, 1863. With this information and cross referencing with NY Vols in Rosters of the New York Volunteers during the Civil War- Annual Report of the Adjutant-General of the State of New York, it appears the gravesite would be that of Frederick Raiber. The spelling differences are not tremendously alarming considering numerous other examples of spelling errors or alternate spellings through research. If in fact Frederick Raiber of the 49th NY, this would be first found example of incorrectly assigned state upon headstone.
